Both sides took plenty of time to get nto the game.

High School was better in playing their gunis, but their quarter fumbled badly nd several times lost the ball by not mming it tightly enough into the fellow was intended for, and losing it.

The academy boys were the best tackers and several times saved their goal nom eminent danger by a timely tackle Players Have Qualified for the Stinson, the little academy quarterback, nade one beautiful tackle getting his man on his shoulder and carrying him back for a couple of yards.

Warham played the most of the game or the High School, doing a good share of the line bucking and the tackling, oote and Hayden played the game for the academy. The lines of both teams sore weak, each side going through the ther's lines at will.
